More than a residence and rarer than legend, 910-914 Watson Street stands as one of the most iconic private estates in all of Key West—a once-in-a-generation offering where historic gravitas, tropical scale, and modern refinement converge behind gated walls in the heart of Old Town. Just moments from Truman Waterfront Park and beloved local favorites such as 5 Brothers Coffee and Café Sole, this historic estate delivers the rare combination of island ease and cultivated sophistication. Bathed in natural light, the home's timeless architecture artfully blurs the line between indoors and out, creating spaces that feel both expansive and intimate. Anchoring the tropical grounds is a resort-style pool and spa framed by tranquil water features and a serene koi pond. The experience is elevated further by an oversized covered pool loggia, designed for effortless island living and entertaining, featuring outdoor dining, a fully equipped outdoor kitchen, and a generous living area all sheltered and inviting year-round. The enclosed, gated grounds offer rare privacy and practicality, including two-car garages and off-street parking for at least six additional vehicles—an exceptional luxury in Old Town. A dedicated dog run with motorized gate and lush landscaping complete the sense of a hidden tropical sanctuary. Spanning 4,387 square feet, the estate includes five
