The wait for perfection has concluded at 1314 Johnson Street. Brand new and never lived in, this pristine masterpiece is where architectural integrity meets the effortless spirit of the Key West lifestyle. Situated just two blocks from the iconic Casa Marina Resort and the beautiful sands of Higgs Beach, this residence offers a rare combination of 3,400 square feet of sophisticated interior living and nearly 2,900 square feet of private, expansive decking. Arrival is marked by a sense of total seclusion, ensured by a secure perimeter and a private electric driveway gate. The home's exterior is finished in premium Hardie board siding, complemented by high-impact windows and doors that provide both architectural beauty and absolute peace of mind. Inside, the home unfolds with wide-plank white oak flooring, eight-foot solid core doors, and soaring ceilings. A stunning chef's kitchen serves as the home's vibrant center, featuring professional-grade Viking appliances, crisp white cabinetry, a striking navy blue island, and Carrara quartz countertops. Designed for the modern host, the home's foundation is defined by dual primary suites--one on each level--providing guests with an unparalleled and private retreat. Each of the four bedrooms features walk-in closets and a private ensuite bath showcasing James Martin vanities and elegant
