Perched at the highest island elevation referred to as Solares Hill you will find this timeless Old Town gem. A perfect blend of style and charm welcome you to an open concept floor plan with cathedral ceilings and wall of French doors that overlooks a tropical backyard oasis with heated pool, deck and brick patio. Thoughtful finishes that will stand the test of time throughout include built in shelving, painted wood ceilings and floors, dade county pine accents, subway tile and stainless appliances to name a few. 2 bedrooms on the first floor share a full bath and each has access to the charming front porch to watch the world go by. The 2nd floor is private to the primary bedroom with an ensuite bath finished in classic marble, built in storage and a glass walk-in shower. Let's not overlook the coveted off street parking for 1 vehicle and a fully fenced yard wrapped in white picket fencing and low maintenance tropical landscaping. Endless charm abounds and this gem is also available fully furnished and designer decorated for a seamless transition into the perfect island home!
